CN Capital Changes Are Asked

Gordon Proposes Move to Wipe Out Railway's Debts

Special to The Bulletin
OTTAWA, March 17. — (BUP) — President Donald Gordon of the Canadian National Railway today proposed that $760,000,000 be wiped out of the interest-bearing capital structure of his company.

It was the central feature of a capital reorganization plan said to be among the most sweeping ever put forward in railroad history.

Gordon suggested the money be transferred into "equity stock" owned by the government, thus becoming eligible for dividends only when the company's earnings were sufficient to pay them.

The former Bank of Canada executive went back to his financial blueprint to produce before the Royal Commission on Transportation, the scheme of capital reorganization for the CNR which had been awaited since his selection as president.

BEJABBERS IT'S TODAY

IT'S THE LUCK of the Caseys, Murphys, O'Tooles and, so many other good people that have a fine day today for the green to honor St. Patrick, patron saint of Ireland. And faith and bejabbars, as Sheila Kennedy, 10228-109 street, might well say, everything is "just as Irish as Paddy's pig."

B.C. HOUSE ASKS GAS PIPELINE BE ALL-CANADIAN

VICTORIA, March 17. — (BUP) — The federal and British Columbia governments were urged by the legislature yesterday to press for a Canadian route for the $300 million gas pipeline to be built from Alberta to the Pacific.

A resolution to that effect, proposed by G. E. Braden, coalition member for Peace River, was adopted unanimously by the legislature.

The resolution also asked that if gas were found in the Peace River the gas pipeline be extended to that area.

Location of the gas pipeline from Alberta to Pacific tidal waters is the most important matter in the future development of British Columbia, S. J. Smith, coalition member for Kamloops, told the house.

He said that the Yellowhead-Thompson Valley-Hope-Prince Rupert route was by far the most feasible where construction difficulties were considered.

POWERFUL N.Y. VOICE
The line would cost $100,000,000 and on a mileage basis two-thirds would be spent in B.C. Smith said. He estimated the job would require 2,000 men for two years.

"After the job was completed there would be a large staff of permanent employees operating pumping stations along the route," (Continued on Page 2)

'SMALL TALK' NEW, APPEALING FEATURE

Tomorrow The Bulletin scores another first when it inaugurates a new feature called "Small Talk," a sparkling and appealing picture series about babies.

"Small Talk" is the brainchild of a Los Angeles photographer who started gathering baby pictures to illustrate a newspaper called Stork News.

He realized many of the expressions the kiddies were suggested adult reactions. And so he captioned the pictures, putting the words of adults into the youngsters' mouths. And the result was "Small Talk."

Tomorrow The Bulletin starts this series of 100 pictures which will capture all hearts in Alberta.

HUNCH FAILS WARY WOMAN

PROVIDENCE, R.I., March 17. — (AP) — A pocket-book thief came up with an unexpected haul last night when he grabbed the handbag of Mrs. Ida Shapiro, 47, near her home.

In Mrs. Shapiro's bag were three diamond rings worth more than $2,000, which she had taken off earlier because she was alone and feared that if they were seen on her hand she might be robbed.

Instead, he proposed: (1) That $760,000,000 of interest be paid to the government.

Manitoba Liquor Act Probe Asked

WINNIPEG, March 17. — (BUP) — A resolution calling for an inquiry into Manitoba's strict liquor control laws was expected today to be voted in the legislature next week.

The resolution was proposed yesterday by Edmond Prefontaine, independent Liberal member for St. John's.

He said that the legislature's law amendments committee heard public briefs on the liquor laws and made recommendations to the legislature.

Edmond declared the support of the resolution.

ST. PAT NOW A REPUBLICAN

By SEAGHAN O'SHAUGHNESSY
DUBLIN, March 17. — (AP) — St. Patrick's Day is no longer a day when a man, not a woman nor a child but who is wearing a green coat or suit to fight "The Green" to Killarney and beyond to go, for the first St. Patrick's Day since Ireland made a republic of herself.

Heads high under hats with a sprig of the shamrock in them, people are off to hurling matches, or watching the dogs, or going to the pub — for no fights in the pub — for the pubs'll be closed.

That is, it's officially they'll be closed.

Military parades are also banned for the great day, though all the troops were going to mass, wearing the shamrock as uniform for the day.

In New York the Irish marched off Fifth Avenue 100,000 strong at their "biggest ever" parade for St. Patrick's Day.

LONDON, March 17. — (Reuters) — After a tug-of-war week in which the government survived three votes of confidence, the House of Commons today agreed without a vote to the first bill of the new parliament. Riot Threat Averted As Villagers Get Food

ST. SAUVEUR, N.E., March 17. — (BUP) — The starving residents of this tiny village near Bathurst ate their first fresh food in two weeks today after the arrival of badly needed supplies staved off possible riots.

RCMP rushed trucks loaded with food through deep snow, with no warning ahead of the trucks with axes, to reach the village.

RCMP Corporal J. E. Roy, of Bathurst, who moved the first supplies through to here before noon, told the British United Press every thing now was under control.

Father Henri, Levesque, the village priest, denied stories of mass violence was threatened, the source of the trouble was that the men were jobless and without sufficient funds to buy food, he said.

Invitations To Go To Pact Nations

OTTAWA, March 17. — (CP) — Canada has invited her 11 North Atlantic Treaty allies to send a total of 250 ground and air officers to be trained in this country, Defence Minister Claxton announced today.

He told the Commons, in launching debate on a record defence budget for the next fiscal year, that 150 of the men would be from ground forces and 100 from the air forces of the various countries.

It indicated Canada's first big step in treaty participation other than what she is doing internally and revived memories of the wartime British Commonwealth air training scheme which produced 13,000 airmen.

The minister said: "The arrangements do not contemplate any payments between countries... later a reverse operation may be worked out whereby Canadian personnel would be training in other countries on a similar basis. This arrangement will be combined with the existing reciprocal arrangements we have with the United Kingdom, United States and France."

BIG PROGRAM
The training in Canada of 250 officers from a number of different countries would represent a big program in training staff, personnel and establishments connected with any particular peacekeeping operation. Training together would be an exercise in practical co-operation of the particular countries which are well qualified by experience and in which we have a great record of achievement."

The members of the treaty include the U.S., U.K., France, Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg, Portugal, Italy, Ireland, Norway and Denmark. It is expected that most of the officers would come from Britain and the western European countries.

He believed in "informed circles" however, that the authority to bring a "lottery" would be dependent on an amendment to the criminal code of Canada which bans lotteries.

The premier said the bill would authorize creation of a committee with power to determine the conditions under which the lottery would be operated. The committee also would supervise operation of the lottery.

The premier said the lottery would be operated "in conformity with the laws of the province." He said no elaborate on this point.

Alta. Farmer Loses If Rail Pact Goes

Producer and Not Consumer
Said Likely to Suffer Big Loss

OTTAWA, March 17.—(CP)—A railway theory aimed at doing away with western Canada's low freight rates on grain was described as "entirely wrong and impractical" by Saskatchewan's counsel before the Royal Commission on Transportation.

Charles M. A. MacPherson was attacking the railway claim that an increase in the grain toll would bring a corresponding boost in grain prices, with the result that the increase would not hurt the farmer.

He was cross-examining P. Armstrong, who had advanced the theory as part of the CPR's case for repeal of the "Crow's Nest" statute of 1903.

TO HEAR DONALD GORDON
During the day, the railway economist concluded his direct testimony, bringing to an end the Canadian Pacific presentation which began several weeks ago before the commission.

Today the commission will hear evidence from Donald Gordon, new chairman and president of Canadian National railways.

Besides the controversy over who pays the grain rates, the CPI economist also ran into questioning on a statement he made to the effect that submarginal wheat growers should not be encouraged by export bounties such as the Crown's Nest Pass rates purported to be.

CONTRADICTION SEEN
Hon. W. F. A. Ferguson, committee chairman, asked how it could be that rates could be made to the effect that submarginal wheat growers, such as Mr. Armstrong, had appeared to suggest in saying that the rates would not harm the growers.

Mr. MacPherson also prodded the witness on the angle that Mr. Armstrong's reply was that

Low-Value Currency Group Aiming at Textile Markets

AND THERE WASN'T A JONES TO BE SEEN

NEWARK, N.J., March 17.—(AP)—There were just two many Smiths.
Judge William A. Smith, one of three Judge Smiths sitting in Newark, drew the hearing yesterday on a damage suit brought by Mrs. Anna Smith against the owner of a car which struck her six-year-old son, Robert Smith.
Judge Smith looked over the jury list and announced:
"There are too many Smiths in this court. By consent I excuse the four Smiths on the jury."

Liberals Easily Win 4 Confidence Votes

OTTAWA, March 17.—(CP)—In swift, one-two-three tempo, the Commons last night rejected two opposition motions of non-confidence in the government.

At the certain came down on the three-speed debate, the Liberals built up big majorities in the three counts—177 to 21 against a Social Credit motion, 166 to 30 against a Progressive Conservative motion and 151 to 31 for the main motion for three-speed adoption.

The chamber voted 155 to 33 Wednesday against a CCF motion declaring non-confidence in the government.

GOVERNMENT CRITICIZED

The Social Credit amendment, appended to the Progressive Conservative motion, criticized the government for its alleged failure to establish a "balanced economy" for the Canadian people.

The Progressive Conservative motion blamed the government for the decline in export markets, the lack of an over-all social security program and a recalled failure to take adequate measures against subversive elements in this country.

OPPOSITION SPLITS

In the count on their amendment, the Social Crediters drew support from the CCF party and a couple of Independents.

Rosa Thatcher (CCF-Moose Jaw) broke party lines and cast his ballot with the Liberals and the Progressive Conservatives in rejecting the Social Credit thrust.

The Progressive Conservatives stood alone in the vote on the amendment. The rest of the house—CCF and Social Credit groups included—placed their strength behind Liberals.

In the third count—the main motion—it was a straight government-against-opposition party line vote up and down against the Liberals. Present standing in the 162-member house, supporting a top-heavy Liberal majority, is:

Liberals, 187; Progressive Conservatives, 40; CCF, 13; Social Credit, 10; Independent, eight; vacant, four.

By NORMAN M. MACLEOD
Exclusive to the Bulletin

OTTAWA, March 17.—(BUP)—Canada's huge textile industry was described today as being caught in a squeeze between imports from low-value currency countries of Europe and low-wage nations of the Orient.

Karl Hummel, Progressive Conservative M.P. for South Western and a main spokesman for the textile industry in the House of Commons, said in an interview the outlook facing Canadian mills was "grave in the extreme."

Hummel cited three situations as a sure formula for mounting unemployment in the textile industry unless prompt action is taken by the government to correct them: The industry normally provides jobs for 150,000 men and women.

FOR UNEMPLOYMENT

Hummel's three examples were: 1. Dumping in Canada of 600,000 Japanese men's shirts said to be offered to Canadian distributors at 30% cents each, job Japan, and to have gone on Canadian retailers' shelves at $1.19 items.

2. Booking in Canada by Indian cotton mills of $100,000,000 worth of orders at prices far below any level which Canadian mills could meet because of low labor rates in the Orient, and.

3. An increase of 50 per cent in Canadian imports of British textiles during the final quarter of 1949, due to the lower prices which British mills had been able to quote as a result of peacetime devaluation.

Government sources indicated Canada was concerned itself actively with only the first of these three situations.

Officials said provisions of self-denying imposed clauses in the tariff were dumped against the textile industry.

The increase in British textile exports to Canada was rated in government circles as a generally constructive development.

BOGUS BILLS FOOL BANKERS

TORONTO, March 17.—(CP)—A bank official said today some bogus $10 bills flooding Toronto recently look so good they even baffled bank clerks.

The spokesman said that in three cases tellers were found to have taken in the counterfeiters and unknowingly paid them out to customers.

Commentator Irks Senator

OTTAWA, March 17.—(CP)—Matthew Halton, CBC London correspondent who spent his boyhood in Pincher Creek, Alta., was criticized and defended in the Senate yesterday as verbal shoves were fired at CBC operations.

Senator John T. Hoag, Progressive Conservative leader, said Mr. Halton's reports from London during the recent United Kingdom election were "biased."

He charged that Mr. Halton favored the Labor party.

Defending the CBC correspondent, Senator Norman Lamont (L.-Ontario) said Mr. Halton was considered by those engaged in newspaper work as "a most competent and objective reporter."

Senator Lamont said he did not believe that Mr. Halton had "voted" his broadcasts of the election. He recalled that in a New Year's broadcast, Mr. Halton had forecast defeat of the Labor government.

There's No Tomorrow

The time was several weeks back, eight or 10 in fact, and a certain Saskatoon radio station was deep in a request program. All they wanted was a phone call. If the disc in question was available the jockey gave out with it.

The same old stuff . . . and such fun.

Midway through the program the phone rang. "This is Tommy Burlington, you know, of the Quakers," this voice at the other end of the wire lifted off. "Wonder if you'd play a number I like? A number called 'There's No Tomorrow'."

The studio allowed as how they would, providing they had the platter.

"And, oh yes," the caller went on, "I'd like you to dedicate it to Cy Thomas."

So the number was rattled off, as per request. And it wasn't until later that someone discovered a hoax had been perpetrated. In other words Burlington had not been in touch with the studio, at least that's what the man said.

If the ballad in question was played over the air 'for' Innate Thomas it was no doing of his. Anyway Quakers, only just taken over by Riley Mullen, were going pretty good.

"Tomorrow"—and the day for, that matter—looked highly promising to the Hub-town crew.

Now It's For Sure

Ah, but that was eight or 10 weeks ago. Now, following that debacle in Calgary's Victoria arena last night, when the Quakers were snuffed out for the season, there really is no tomorrow for them.

And no day after tomorrow, either.

They were a team that promised so much. Under Mullen's medication they were the league basement in January to battle right down to the wire with Stampede for the second slot.

Even the Eye-In-The-Sky could have pried apart the two squads after 50 games, except that Stampede had the better goal average. On the strength of this hair-thin edge, Cowbears earned the runner-up slot, with plenty of daylight space between them and the pacemaking Flyers, from out of the Edmonton Gardens.

But third place finish or no, Quakers were a confident crew as their semi-final series with Stampede got underway. And truth to tell most observers liked them more than a little to shoot up the hired hands of coach Butch McDonald.

However, as not more than several hundred thousand people well know by now, it didn't pan out that way.

Quakers followed the script pretty closely while earning a split of the first two contests, played in Calgary. But from then on they strictly forgot their lines.

They proved to be mighty poor at ad-libbing, too.

But What of the 1st and 15th?

So now it's a brand new deal for those colorful, carefree Quakers. Until next September, when some of them, but not all, certainly, report back for training, they can forget hockey.

And they will forget it, too, except on the first and 15th of each month. Then, like all other professional athletes who are suddenly cut off salary, to say nothing of cut-off their shoe polish and encyclopedia hustlers, they'll miss what is sometimes vulgarly referred to as the paycheque.

Yes, those Quakers really blew the duke at the finish. They weren't even swinging in the late going. Stampede putting them down on the deck by 7-2, 6-1 points in the fourth and fifth games, respectively.

In defence of this particular Quaker club, it might be well to recall that the re-established Western Canada League as a paying proposition in Saskatoon.

All the hard work manager Bill Hunter, coach Mullen and his aides did in fashioning what was probably the most crowd-pleasing squad in the loop was not in vain.

Last season Quakers drew 56,000 to their home games. This time they packed in close to 120,000, counting the two playoff games.

But playoff contests, those clutch affairs, are won on the ice, not at the box-office. So the Quakers, despite such excellent patronage, have packed their gear.

There's no tomorrow . . . there's just tonight.

Canadians Tie Wings With Two Late Goals

MONTREAL, March 17—(CP)—Montreal Canadiens scored two fast goals in the last five minutes of play last night to earn a 2-2 tie with Detroit Red Wings and remain in third place in the National Hockey League.

The game, before a crowd of 14,000, was the sixth tie of the two teams played this season in their full 14 meetings. Red Wings held the edge with five wins against two.

Gordie Howe and Red Kelly were the Detroit scorers and Maurice Richard, with his first goal of the season and Doug Harvey were the Montreal marksmen in Canadian desperate bid at the finish.

The hard-fought, rugged and close-checking game brought a total of 15 minute penalties, eight to the Red Wings. Canadiens played a man short the score at 15:00 after tying the score at 13:00 of the last period.

DURAN RETURNS

Bill Duran, back in the Montreal fold after an absence of six games through injuries, turned in a first-class performance.

Calgary Will Hang Tough in WCHL Final—Mullen

By Stan Moher
Sports Editor

The Flyers, scheduled to open up against Calgary Stampede at the Gardens tomorrow night in the Western Canada Hockey league final, had better be prepared for a stern evening of it.

At least this was the warning sounded by Riley Mullen, via telephone, from Calgary last night.

"Stampede are a much-improved hockey team," Mullen cautioned, "if that's what it is."

"In fact they're a brand new team under 'Butch' McDonald. They're playing at a unit really playing," he continued.

And who would know better than Mullen, considering that the Stampede had just finished tearing his Saskatoon Quaker machine to shreds, while winning the semi-final round four games to one?

"Disappointed? Not as much as you might think," the Quaker coach answered, "The way those Stampede were going, we just couldn't do much about it."

To hear him tell it, even veteran Doug Cairns "had played himself a case of hockey."

He had nothing but praise for goalie Johnny Sadiak, who returned to action in the Saskatoon net last night. Three of the six Calgary goals were scored on rebounds because the fellows out front weren't doing any clearing for him.

The Quaker coach planned to come on to Edmonton for a day, before proceeding to Saskatoon, where the club will debut for the season. Main body of the Quakers is scheduled to leave Calgary tonight for home.

Atom Survivors Might Have 'Normal' Health

Saucer Seen, Maybe Filmed

MEXICO CITY, March 17.—(UP)—

American movie cameramen will know today whether they filmed a "flying saucer" or their imagination.

Cameramen shooting movie scenes at Central airport said they trained telephone cameras on a "shiny, fast-moving" object that was visible briefly, then whizzed out of sight at high speed yesterday over Mexico City.

The pictures will be turned over to the U.S. and Mexican governments for study, the photographers said. The films were to be developed today.

Homer Davis, Columbia Pictures publicist, said he saw the object three times and "it definitely wasn't the planes Venus, or a star, or some scientific device." Davis said other persons also said they saw the object just before noon.

Davis said the cameramen took pictures on both color and black-and-white film with 35-millimeter telephoto lenses.

Husband Shoots His Wife Then Turns Gun on Self

TRAGEDY IN THIS Edmonton home at 11635-91 street, took two lives yesterday. Shot and killed as she slept was Mrs. Eva Thomson, 42, and her husband, Mungo, died later in hospital of self-inflicted gun wounds. Car belonged to Thomson.

Two single shots from a tiny nickel-plated .32 calibre revolver brought death yesterday to Mungo Thomson, 45-year-old Edmonton electrical engineer and his 42-year-old wife Eva.

Thomson died at 4 p.m. yesterday in Royal Alexandra Hospital from a self-inflicted bullet wound in the head—less than six hours after police found the body of Mrs. Thomson lying on the bed in the police received a worried call from a neighbour the children couple occupied at 11635-91 street.

KILLED IN HER SLEEP
The tall, brown-haired electrical engineer was found at the same time, unconscious and bleeding profusely, in a back bedroom.

His right hand was still clenched around the gun.

Eva was rushed to hospital in Seattle's ambulance.

Police believe that Thomson killed his wife while she lay asleep and then went into the other room where he turned the gun on himself.

They said the woman's death was instantaneous.

Strangely, a live bullet was between the two spent chambers in the five-shot revolver.

DEATH SUDDENLY
The deaths were investigated by Detective Inspector Bert Petheram, Detective Sergeant James E. Peterson and Detective Roy Dick after police received a worried call from Mrs. Thomson's parents.

The parents became alarmed when they learned from Thomson's employers that he had not been back at work after he left suddenly for home at noon Wednesday.

When they could get no answer to repeated phone calls they contacted the police.

It is believed that the shootings occurred after daybreak yesterday because no lights were on in the house when police arrived at 10:40 a.m.

Although no suicide note was found, the police said the double tragedy, police stated the deaths were "undoubtedly a murder-suicide."

They said no inquest would be held.

HUSBAND HAD BEEN ILL
They believe that Thomson was led to kill his wife and himself after a long period of sickness and suffering had apparently made him deeply despondent.

Just over a year ago Thomson was found unconscious from carbon monoxide poisoning in the garage of his home. He was revived with difficulty. This past fall he was involved in a traffic accident in which he suffered a broken collar bone.

Drew Charge Gets Denial
PRINCETON, N.J., March 17.—Collaboration between Dr. Albert Einstein and Dr. Leopold Infeld's Toronto book "years ago" and had no connection with the building of the atom bomb. Dr. Einstein's secretary said today.

The secretary, Helen Dukas, was commenting on a statement made in the Canadian House of Commons last night by Gen. Dr. Drew, leader of the Progressive Conservative party. Drew had urged the government to investigate a report that Dr. Infeld "plans to travel to Poland armed with certain atomic knowledge that he gained from two years' association with Dr. Einstein in the United States."

Drew quoted from an article in a Roman Catholic weekly magazine, The Ensign, which said that Infeld, a University of Toronto mathematics professor, intended to visit his native Poland this summer to teach mathematics there.

Three Fires Take Thirteen Lives

Children, Parents, Helpless Prisoners Die During Night

From CP and BUP Dispatches

Three fatal fires today took the lives of 13 children and adults in different sections of the United States.

Near Port Huron, Mich., a mother and father and their four small children burned to death when an early morning fire destroyed their small home.

Dead was Kenneth Chase, 42, his wife, Phyllis, 32, an expectant mother; and their children, ranging from two to six years old.

AFTER RETIRING
Flames shot through the one-story block home two hours after the family had retired.

The mother was found in bed with one of her children. The father was near the kitchen door. He apparently had awakened and tried to flee. The other children were in their beds.

At Spray, N.C., six prisoners—five men and a woman—perished in the Spray jail after a mattress caught fire. Three were white and three were negro.

DISCOVERY MADE
The fire was found by Desk Sgt. P. L. McBride when he went to the second floor of the city hall building to look up another prisoner at 2:40 a.m.

All of the six who died had been charged with public drunkenness. Police said there was a possibility that one of the six—all faced trial this morning—had deliberately set the fire. The jail was only slightly damaged.

The victims were Lucille Winch, 30, Jeanie Yarbrough, 22, and Marion Morrison, 25, all white; and Harvey Cole, 34, Joe W. Willis, 31 and Bonnie Martin, 21, negroes. They apparently were asleep when the fire started, and were awakened.

Spray is a textile town in north central North Carolina.

Mary Naul, two-year-old girl, perished and her father was burned fatally in an attempt to rescue her from flames that swept their Manchester, N.H., home.

Four other members of her family were hospitalized.

One-fifth of Nebraska's "living dead" died before producing enough eggs to pay for their raising costs.

SAVES 4 SONS FIFTH IS BORN

PORT WILLIAM, Ont., March 17.—(CP)—Fire Inspector J. Hutton said fire-prevention facilities at the Ontario mental hospital here were "adequate."

Inspector Hutton recommended that an "old-fashioned" hospital be replaced by modern apparatus.

Mrs. and Mrs. Green's home on the hospital grounds burned Wednesday night.

Mrs. Green gave birth to a 7½-pound boy 10 hours after she had rescued her four sons from the blaze. Her husband was absent at the time.

Sable Island Rescue Tried
HALIFAX, N.S., March 17.—(UP)—RCMP crew today prepared to effect a rescue of an injured woman on remote Sable Island about 200 miles east of here in the Atlantic.

Halifax Coast Guard was requested to pick up Mrs. James Gleason, the wife of a Dominion telegraphist, who was reported to have suffered a broken leg.

With a storm reported moving into the maritime area, RCMP officials told the Irvine's skipper to stand at full steam to the island and return here before noon tomorrow.

on the TOWN...

By Jack DeLong

Erin Go Bragh

This is the day when the world is divided into two groups: people who are Irish and people who wish they were Irish.

I hunted all over town last night for Irishmen and found 87 of them—in the telephone directory.

What name leads all the rest among Edmonton's Irish? Why the Kellys of course. There are 16 of them listed, begorrah. Faith the Murphys are next with 15.

There'll be a nice handful of shamrocks needed for the O'Neills, too, for there are 12 of them listed.

The O'Connors can hold up their heads today, with 10 families ready for the big parade. The name of O'Brien is listed seven times.

Telephone box scores on the rest of Edmonton's Irish is: O'Gorman four; O'Donnell five; O'Hara two; O'Farrell, two; O'Beirne two; and one each of the following: O'Hanlon, O'Shea, O'Sullivan, O'Leary, O'Daniel, O'Dell, O'Reilly, O'Meara, O'Doherty.

Where does a fellow with a name like Macgregor hide on the 17th day of March?

Elegant Elsie thinks girls must be terribly shy in Ireland.

Exclaimed Elsie: "Why, I've even heard of Irishmen kissing an old library stone."

Running The Blockade

Jasper Avenue west is becoming a real speedway. Do you ever try crossing Jasper street at any intersection west of 100 street during rush hours? Don't try it unless you have plenty of time to spare.

I saw a woman with a baby carriage marooned on the centre strip for fully five minutes the other day. Traffic was whizzing past in an unbroken stream.

Not one car driver slowed down to permit that woman to reach the south curb.

Had it not been for a break in the long line of speeding cars that woman and her baby would still be out in the middle of Jasper Avenue.

A newcomer asked me why the Young Men's Christian Association is listed in the Edmonton telephone directory as YMCA while the YWCA gets the full treatment as Young Women's Christian Association.

I don't know the answer but have a hunch that the ladies are that way just to make good and sure that newcomers to Edmonton of the male gender don't check in at the YWCA by mistake some dark night.

Now that Edmonton is officially "The Gateway to the North," what do you say we let Calgary be "The Gateway to Edmonton"?

A Back Number

Maury Soward, just in from Vancouver, wants to know why the southeast corner of 103 street has a sign that reads "105 street."

Maury complains he was tricked into walking eight blocks out of his way by that old sign.

That guy Soward should make a pretty sharp reporter and come to think of it that's what he is, on the staff of The New Bulletin. (I never noted that sign in 30 years.)

Safety patrolling pays off for taxi firms in fewer accidents.

Since Yellow Cab Co. instituted its own safety patrol, six months ago, the accident rate has dropped to almost nothing, fleet inspector Bill Ferguson tells me.

A special road-inspection fleet patrol car, operated by safety supervisor Ormond Horton, cruises through streets checking drivers who are speeding or disobeying other traffic regulations.

Bill said, with a twinkle in his eye, that Mr. Horton is not always too popular with the boys who shove back for the Yellow.

Upward Trend In Hog Sales

Alberta farmers scarcely need about hog markets with the Canadian public consuming one-third more pork than last year.

The minister revealed that hog marketings in February were 34 per cent higher than in the same month of last year.

The increase for all Canada to date this year is 31.6 per cent above the same period last year.

Domestic distribution for Canada showed $8,634 per marketed in February or $1 per cent more than in 1959.

Approximately 1,500,000 fewer pounds were reported to date this year than in 1949.

Canadians are also eating more beef.

Despite the bright outlook for hogs Alberta farmers have allowed the number of animals on farms to decline sharply in recent years.

In 1949 there were 2,233,000 hogs on the farms of this province. In 1959 there were only 847,000.

Canadian farmers are selling in the "highest market of the world," and it will continue to be that way as long as Marshall Plan buying goes on, Mr. Gardiner predicted.

WOULD CUT U.S. SALES

Western farmers are not selling their beef cattle to the states. They are selling their basic breeding herds," he said.

He repeated his assurance given at Saskatoon the previous night that livestock payments on wheat would be made this year to farmers.

He said the payments would likely be made in five separate payments but did not state when the money would be paid.

He repeated the advice given in his Saskatoon speech to western farmers, in which he urged a 3,000,000 reduction in acreage sown to wheat this spring.

The minister said it is not a matter of repeating the error of the drought years when they kept increasing acreage each year in a cattle attempt to make up for crop losses of previous year.

NEW MEMBERS FOR HIGHLANDS

A "membership night" consisting of a pancake dinner followed by dancing is planned for April 11 by the Highlands Community League.

The membership drive returns indicated the drive should exceed 400, a year record total of 460 family memberships.

Elmo Booker is chairman in charge of membership night.

SECRET MONEY IS NOT FUNNY, OTTAWA TOLD

OTTAWA, March 17.—(CP)

John Blackmore (C-S-Liberal) last night told Commons the government was falling in its duty if it did not see that the people had enough purchasing power to buy all that was produced.

There was only one way in which that could be—through adoption of Social Credit economic theories. They called for the issuance of debt-free money.

There should be enough money at all times to cover the value of the country's production.

Some claimed the Social Credit party was preaching "bunny money." Actually it was preaching the soundest kind of money in the world.

Minneapolis Group Here

Edmontonians who enjoy classical music will have an opportunity to hear the famous Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Antal Dorati, at the Sales Pavilion, March 20.

The orchestra, now making its western Canadian tour, will feature two shows, one at 2:30 in the afternoon and a second program at 8:30 in the evening.

The program includes overture to "The Merry Wives of Windsor" by Niels, Third Movement (Schubert-Dorati) from Symphony No. 7 in A major by Beethoven.

The young person's guide to the orchestra, comprised of variations and fugue on a Theme of Purcell by Benjamin Britten, "Treasure Waltz" from "The Merry Wives of Windsor" by Niels, and "The Valkyries" from "Die Walkure" by Wagner.

Busy Summer For Highway

Alaska highway is facing its best tourist year, believe the men who maintain and administer the big route.

Major Woodrow Coward, staff officer of the Northwest Highway System in Whitehorse, estimated Thursday that traffic will increase 60 to 100 per cent this year over 1959, just as it has in every year since the army took over in April, 1946.

It has been a chain reaction growth in which tourist traffic increased as accommodation and garage facilities grew. In turn, these had to have traffic volume to prosper.

The number of stopping place stations has grown with the tourist traffic until there are now 23 to 30 stations spaced every 50 or 60 miles along the road, said Major Coward.

These stations offer hotel, restaurant and garage facilities throughout the 1,280-mile highway and "are doing very well," he said.

For its part, the army has boosted tourist travel by re-graveling 200 miles of highway each year straightening out dangerous bends, improving culverts and building new steel bridges.

Moreover, in patrols every inch of the highway at least once a day ROAD WELL MAINTAINED

It has won praise from tourists for the excellence of the highway, said Major Coward.

The U.S. Public Roads Administration, which designed all American federal highways, declared it to be "the best maintained gravel highway in North America."

Weather conditions along the highway appear to be the best in the world, he added.

The road is showing slowly in contrast to the sudden spring of 1949 had to go to jail for non-payment of the minimum $20 fine.

"Our jail has been crowded," he said, "but from these figures it's clear why it's crowded."

He said magistrates he had consulted were "astonished" that the minimum sentence should be removed and replaced by a discretionary power.

The former provincial deputy attorney-general said he had had "reports" that the legislature would remove the minimum sentence provision at the present session.

Mr. Henwood noted that the city of Edmonton received $20,211 in 1949 from the 829 persons found guilty of intoxication.

Herbert Turner, secretary of Edmonton Trades and Labor Council last week, said that construction work opening up in the next few weeks would provide plentiful job opportunities for discharged men.

He promised that his organization will do its utmost to place them.

Committee chairman chosen Thursday were Dean W. F. Bosker, president; J. Lynn Sutherland, membership; Mr. H. C. Newland, secretary; A. Aldridge, employment; and T. S. Magee, finance.

Campaign For Testing Scored By Legislator

The Bulletin came in for mild criticism in the Alberta legislature yesterday for having advocated tests of automobile drivers.

William Tomney (C-S-Vegreville), speaking against a C.C.P. motion to urge revision, compensation and automobile insurance at cost, said compulsory licensing "or drivers' tests" like those advocated by the Bulletin "could not effectively reduce accidents."

But Tomney, an industrialist, said in 1958, he said, "and as a result there was a marked increase in accidents."

He recommended a five-point plan to reduce automobile accidents: suspension of licenses of convicted drivers, re-examination

House Weight Flattens Move to Reduce Gas Tax

$11 MILLION ON EDUCATION

More than $11,000,000 in expenditures in the department of education were approved by the Alberta legislature yesterday.

Included were $7,850,000 in school grants, $332,270 for supervision of schools, $111,250 for the examination branch and $485,300 for the correspondence school branch.

Drunkennes Term Is Like Debtor Jail

Mandatory 30-day prison sentences for persons unable to pay fines for drunkenness were scored as "imprisonment for debt" by George H. Henwood, K.C., Thursday night.

He told a meeting of Edmonton John Howard Society council, of which he is chairman that 435 of 1464 persons convicted for intoxication in a public place in 1949 had to go to jail for non-payment of the minimum $20 fine.

"Our jail has been crowded," he said, "but from these figures it's clear why it's crowded."

He said magistrates he had consulted were "astonished" that the minimum sentence should be removed and replaced by a discretionary power.

Compensation, Car Insurance Motions Lost In Legislature

Opposition motions seeking gasoline tax reductions of two cents and a system of auto accident compensation and car insurance at cost were flattened by government weight in the legislature yesterday.

C.C.P. motion asking the government consider enactment of a plan of automobile accident compensation and automobile insurance at cost was voted down by a 37 to five majority. Two M.L.A.s who said they were active in insurance business spoke against the motion.

RULING IS CONTESTED

A Liberal motion asking the government to reduce the direct tax on gasoline by two cents was ruled out of order by the Speaker.

A 445 vote when the opposition forced a division, upheld the speaker's decision.

Speaker Hon. Peter Hanson (SNC) Little Bow ruled that opposition members did not have the right to introduce motions involving a charge on the public treasury. He quoted a House of Commons ruling that an opposition member was not allowed to introduce a motion exemplifying a rural electrification concern from a corporate income tax.

NO REDRESS FOR MANY

Hugh John Macdonald (L-Calgary) who moved the motion, argued that House's ruling was an abuse of authority, and that the motion should be ruled out of order, as it constituted a money bill, which can only be introduced by the government.

WANTON DEFECT

MINITOP (SNC) March 17.—(SNC) Manitoba legislature yesterday voted down a C.C.P. proposal that the government consider the establishment of compulsory automobile insurance in Manitoba, with the government as the insurer. The session suggested was almost identical to that now in effect in Saskatchewan. The motion was defeated by a vote of 38 to 8.

Irish Candy Snakes Mark St. Pat's Day

By Len Thrilly

Shure and 'tis the very snakes of Ireland that's hauntin' us this day. . . But I don't think we'll have to call on St. Patrick to preserve us. . . 'cause the snakes are candy.

I must say I'm not too enthused about this. . . I was never one to fancy a snake. . . specially a green snake. And I can't say as I'd care to eat one just now—even a candy one.

These colored and all-to-real looking snakes are made of fine sugar candy and sell at a reasonable price of 35c each.

Tobe on Fashion—

The New Shoulder Bags are Shorter And More Comfortable To Wear. So many women are devoted to shoulder bags that they insist on wearing them all the time, whether it's the fashion or not. And rightly so—because if you like something and it's comfortable with it, there's no real reason in the world for wearing it.

But personal fashions of this sort must follow the prevailing mode in order to play smart. I'm glad to say that our top American bag-maker, have given us a new look in shoulder bags this spring. These are now smaller, much softer, and sturdier dress models of sturdy utility.

Huggie-chance off! However, lies in shorter straps so that the smartest new shoulder bags really come in handy under the arm and can be hugged tightly when walking.

Bob Whitart was chairman of a discussion on office equipment. The first automobile race was held in France, from Paris to Rouen, in 1894.

Among the recent arrivals at "Lord's," "Irene" offers unusual styles in a beautiful array of spring shades.

STRETCH BULGES AWAY—For that roll above the girdle, try this exercise to iron out the problem.

WHY GROW OLD

Bulges Thrown Away With Good Stretches

By Josephine Lowman

It is time to give your figure, as well as your house, a spring cleaning. Throw away those old bulges which have been cluttering up your silhouette! It can be done, with just a little less of weight, or perhaps by exercising alone.

Boring is a fine line for stretching, anyway, and the stretch is the important part of any reducing exercise. Today I will help you get rid of the roll over the girdle.

1. Stand tall with your feet separated. Balance your arms side by side, shoulder height. Bend to the left, trying to touch your right hand to the floor. Raise your trunk and pull back. Bend to the right and try to touch your right hand to the floor. Raise your trunk and pull back. Continue, alternating left and right. Do this in a smooth, flowing, continuous motion, with a roll-back in between bends.

2. Do front bends, but do NOT do them in the old-fashioned way. Instead of stretching up with your arms, keep them relaxed after raising the trunk, elbows and fingertips pointing toward the ceiling. Get your stretch by lifting your ribcage upward as far as you can. This is a good exercise for the mid at fat some women get over the diaphragm. If you would like to have more waist reducing exercises, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Domestic Naggers Are Served Notice

DEAR MISS DIX: Is nagging an incurable disease? I am coming to the conclusion that it is.

I have a friend who tells me that she married the dearest man in the world, but that he left her when he could stand her nagging no longer. Now I am again brought in contact with a young couple whose marriage is doomed the same reason. He is a great lover of peace and harmony, a good provider, educated and talented, very popular, but at home he is never right about anything.

A window left open, a chair out of place will call down volumes of unwarranted nagging on his head. I am quite positive that once this man's endurance reaches the point of saturation he will go, never to return. Can his wife help nagging him?

ANSWER: I have sufficient faith in the power of the human will to believe that anyone who is not mentally diseased can cure himself of any fault that he really desires to correct.

ENJOYS NAGGING We have all known reformed drunkards and gamblers and philanderers, and the only reason we never meet a reformed nagger is because the nagger gets such a kick out of nagging that he or she cannot bear to desist from his or her favorite diversion.

There are several reasons why the nagger never desists from his or her evil ways. One is that he or she over admits to being a nagger. Another is that the nagger allows to supervise the affairs of the household, and to run every detail of the lives of all his or her family or of some circle of friends.

I do not blame any man who has a nagging wife for taking the first thing away from her. She has brought her misfortune on her own head because she could have reformed if she had wanted to do so.

Every man who finds that he is married to a nagging woman should serve notice on her that if she doesn't mend her ways, that he will be a nagger to her.

The net value of Australian industrial production in 1947-48 reached a record of £1,877,000,000.

An engine-generator set, as quiet as it can scarcely be heard 300 feet away, has been developed for military use. Its silence largely is due to a glass-lined lined box in which it is enclosed.

Spring Months Were Names Of Goddesses

In the stories of the month, we find many names are taken from the Roman gods. We have already talked about the first four months—January, February, March, and April. January was named after Janus, the god with two faces. February took its name from Februa, the feast in honor of the god Lupercus. March was named after Mars, the god of war, and April was named for the goddess of spring.

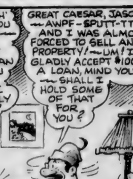

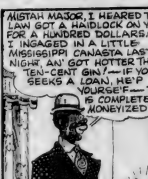

The month of May was named after Maia, daughter of Atlas. Her father was the man who was supposed to support the earth on his shoulders. He had seven daughters, who ran swiftly from heaven to earth on errands for the gods and goddesses.

Juniper, father of all the gods, took Maia and her sisters and placed them together as stars in the sky. The cluster of six stars called Pleiades are supposed to be Maia and her sisters. The seventh star of the cluster is invisible to us, and ever after, because Rigel was condemned to roll a stone up a hill eternally; she has hidden her face in sorrow.

For the next month of the Christian calendar there is some dispute as to which person rightfully can claim the honor of having their name chosen. One is the goddess

Uncle Wiggily's
Bedtime Story

Such a busy time as there was in the Wind Wagon. They were all busy. The breeze blew on the sails of the Wind Wagon, and the Wind Wagon stopped near the creek where the new babies had just awakened, the cow lady nurse hurried from one crib to another.

"We had better keep to one side," said Uncle Wiggily to the goat with the golden horns. "Why?" asked Nurse. She was hoping she might get a new baby rabbit sister. "Why should we keep to one side, Uncle Wiggily?" "Because," blurted the goat, "this cow lady nurse might put one of us like a baby into a Wind Wagon and away we would go, just where I wouldn't know."

"There isn't much danger of your being mistaken for a baby," said Uncle Wiggily to Uncle Butter. "You're too old a goat, though they have some baby goats here, too."

The kind cow lady nurse was stepping along between the rows of cribs. Near each crib was a Wind Wagon. As she flapped in the breeze, Nurse Cow picked up a little baby pig. She looked at a paper pinned to the crib and then moved on.

"This little pig goes to Oakland. Away go, my darling!" Then she plopped the little baby pig into his Wind Wagon. The sail puffed out. The Wind Wagon rose up in the air like Uncle Wiggily's sky auto and away went the baby pig to Oakland.

"Now for the rest of them!" moaned Nurse Cow. She quickly took other babies and put them on the foot of the stairs from their cribs and placed them in the Wind Wagon. Then away they went, sailing through the air. "Isn't anyone going with them?" asked Uncle Wiggily. "I mean isn't anyone going in the Wind Wagon to see that each baby gets to the right place?"

"Oh, bless your pink bringling nose!" laughed Nurse Cow. "These babies will be all right. Ever since there were any babies, each one has always gone to the right place. None of them gets lost. When they arrive, some mother or daddy will take them out of the Wind Wagon and the babies will start their lives in their new homes."

"Maybe some of them will come to Woodland near the Orange Ice Mountain where we live, Uncle Wiggily," said Nurse.

"I'm sure you will find some of these new babies there when you go back," moaned Nurse Cow. "And now, if you will excuse me, I must change these cribs and order some new Wind Wagons. For soon we shall have a new lot of babies. Good bye, Uncle Wiggily and all your friends!"

"Good bye!" answered the rabbit gentleman and all the others. Uncle Wiggily and the others travelled down the broad branches which were the streets of the Tree. They reached the parking lot where the sky auto was waiting. "Wait for me! Wait for me! I am going home." Then, all of a sudden a voice called: "If I see the March Wind don't blow the hat off the head of the lettuce moored Nurse Cow."

She quickly took other babies and put them on the foot of the stairs

Big Three Powers Decide To Continue 'German War'

WASHINGTON, March 17.—(AP)—The Western Allies have decided to shelve for the time being a proposal to end the formal state of war with Germany. Diplomatic officials said today Britain, the United States and France have agreed that termination action would threaten a tangle of legal complications which the three occupation powers are unprepared to tackle now.

Accordingly, a meeting of legal experts in London has been called off. Further active consideration of the idea has been postponed until a forthcoming spring meeting of the Big Three western foreign ministers. The decision to put off action was reached in a recent informal exchange of views among the three powers. State and justice department officials here decided that a declaration formally ending the war would mean the U.S. Congress

B.C. Murder Trial Nears Conclusion

Public Scrambles For Seats As Bizarre Evidence Unfolds

VANCOUVER, March 17.—(CP)—The most turbulent, bitterly-fought murder case in Vancouver's history is drawing to a close while the public continues to scramble for seats in the court house.

The trial of 37-year-old Frederick Roger Ducharme for the slaying of a pretty, devious-looking spinster in attracting masses of the rank-and-file public who have followed the case from its bizarre beginning.

The body of 45-year-old Fernie Blanche Fisher was found Nov. 8 in the murky tide waters of False Creek, the night after she was reported missing by her family with whom the seamstress lived a sheltered life.

Death was ruled due to drowning. Medical evidence showed she had been with a man the previous night and that there were bruises on her throat.

Night sessions were scheduled to start last night but defence counsel Donald J. McAlpine said he was also weary to carry on.

Four statements by Ducharme have been read into the record. The rambling, sometimes garbled prose corresponds to the fully-punctuated testimony he has given while standing in the witness box, swaying slightly, an expression of deep concentration on his face. Trial continues today.

Union Man Fined

CALGARY, March 17.—(CP)—James Ashcroft, former president of the Calgary local of the Beverage Dispensers' Union, yesterday was fined $20 and costs by Magistrate G. H. Rose when convicted of assaulting Jake Kovacs, union water, during the recent beer waiters' strike here.

JACOBY on canasta

FOR BEGINNERS—2

The general idea of Canasta is to put every meldable card down as soon as possible. However, it does pay to make the first meld for your side, especially when you can do so conveniently. There are many reasons for this. To begin with your partner may have picked up a card, you have a chance to meld, and then you throw away the discard one of your cards. The hand ends when somebody melds all of his cards.

These things are all true of rummy, and they're true also of Canasta. However, there's more to it than that.

One big difference is that in Canasta whenever you take the previous player's discard you also get the entire discard pile. That would be a disadvantage if you were trying to meld out, as you are in most games of rummy. In Canasta, however, you are to meld as you can, as much as possible and you don't try to meld out unless you're taking a counter, is usually a great advantage to get a big pile of discards, because the more cards you have the more you can meld.

CERTAIN NUMBER

Rummy players are used to the idea that cards count a certain number of points. That is true of the cards in Canasta also. Only it's easier in Canasta.

All the high cards count ten points each. That includes all the kings, queens, jacks, tens, nines and eights.

All the low cards five points each. That includes aces, sevens, sixes, fours, and the black threes. The red threes are another story and we'll talk about them another time.

There are also some special cards. Aces and deuces are worth twenty points each. Jacks are worth fifty points each.

SAVE EACH ONE

Save these simple installments. If you're a beginner, you'll soon be able to profit from the time given in the second part of this article. If you're an experienced player save the first half to teach the game to others.

FOR EXPERIENCED PLAYERS—2

We have seen that it doesn't pay to put every meldable card down as soon as possible. However, it does pay to make the first meld for your side, especially when you can do so conveniently. There are many reasons for this. To begin with your partner may have picked up a card, you have a chance to meld, and then you throw away the discard one of your cards. The hand ends when somebody melds all of his cards.

MAKES IT EASIER

A second reason is that the meld makes it easier for you and your partner to get the discard pile later on. Before the first meld you need a natural pair that matches the previous discard. In any melding of the minimum count. After the first meld you or your partner can take the discard pile with one matching card and one wild card—or a matching pair, if you happen to hold the pair. This, of course, is usually a great advantage.

In the third place, either you or your partner can take the discard pile if given a chance at a discard that matches the meld. For example, suppose you have enough kings and wild cards to make the first meld. If you don't make the meld, the player at your left can discard a king or two kings, and your partner probably won't be able to touch them. If you do make the meld, the player at your left cannot discard a king without giving the discard pile to your partner. Finally, the first meld starts you off towards a canasta. You have to start some time, and the cards you put down for your first meld usually help you quite a bit in the direction.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Males in the United States are getting a boost from beautiful Gaby Andre, the screen's latest French flash.

"I am French, you understand, and there is nothing wrong with French men," green-eyed Gaby began cautiously. "But Americans have so much—what you call—sins."

"They keep so young and vigorous they make everyone around them feel the same. So much so that I have never seen before."

The French gal went out on a limb and declared that American husbands are the best in the world.

"They like to spoil a girl, to make her think she is the most wonderful thing in the world."

SO LOVELY!
"But American! They are lovely. Any little thing you do for them, they appreciate it."

Gaby speaks from experience. She was a French film actress until she met an American army colonel during the war. She came to the U.S. as Mrs. El Smith. Now she is making her Hollywood debut.

"Even during the war, American soldiers in France gave our country a lift," she said. "I think a lot of this gaiety and vigor is due to the American love of sports. Americans not only take sports, they take part in them. This gives them a youthful outlook."

Aussie Sees Japan Again Possible Enemy

CANBERRA, Australia, March 17.—(AP)—M. V. Ewart, former external affairs minister, told the Australian government today it is the only possible aggressor.

The former president of the United Nations Assembly, speaking from opposition benches in parliament, said:

"I don't believe Japan will be content to remain always ready to ally itself with those nations who were its chief enemies in the Second World War."

It was Ewart's first major foreign affairs speech in parliament since the defeat of the Labor government, in which he was deputy prime minister.

Russian Icon Reaches Canada

MONTREAL, March 17.—(AP)—The holy icon or our lady of Tichvin—believed the oldest icon in Russian orthodoxy—arrived here today from the Russian cathedral in New York.

In Canada for the first time, the icon is traditionally believed to have been made in Antioch by St. Luke the apostle.

It is known to have been in Jerusalem in the sixth century and in the 14th century in Constantinople.

They will fly from Calcutta, Queensland, to a base near the battlefield. From there they will have a three-day coastal trek to Edward River.

First Triumph
His first Broadway triumph was in his own production of the French classic, "Olympia de Bonaparte." His Ceylan remains among the most cherished memories of modern players and won him highest acclaim from the radio and press.

"Whirlpool" was written by Ben Hecht and Andrew Solt from a novel by Guy Endoren.

Directed and produced by Otto Preminger, the film stars Gene Tierney, Richard Conte, Jose Ferrer and Charles Bickford.

"Whirlpool" starts today at the Rialto Theatre.

Cabinet Orders Must Be Public Senate Declares

OTTAWA, March 17.—(CP)—A government measure, which its sponsor said will "throw light on all executive documents," was given second reading—approval in principle—in the senate.

The bill, introduced by Senator A. K. Huggess (1—Quebec), will make it mandatory for the government to make public 15 days after parliament meets.

It is a necessary bill in view of criticism that the government sometimes conducts affairs "by order-in-council."

Mystery Surrounds David Karvo, weird hypnotist who is suspected of blackmail and murder in Twentieth Century-Fox's thriller, "Whirlpool." Film stars Gene Tierney and Charles Bickford and features Jose Ferrer. "Whirlpool" starts today at Rialto Theatre.

Top Broadway Thespian Outstanding On Screen

Foremost actor of his generation, Jose Ferrer, has left the white lights of Broadway to star in Twentieth Century-Fox's latest hit, "Whirlpool."

Jose Ferrer has long been referred to as an actor with hypnotic power, and follows the part by portraying a hypnotist in his first Hollywood film.

He is now under a five-year contract calling for one film a year, with a second optional.

If his option isn't exercised he is free to do a Broadway play each year. Ferrer believes that Broadway is the best training ground for an actor, and is always perfecting his art on the stage.

First Triumph
His first Broadway triumph was in his own production of the French classic, "Olympia de Bonaparte." His Ceylan remains among the most cherished memories of modern players and won him highest acclaim from the radio and press.

"Whirlpool" was written by Ben Hecht and Andrew Solt from a novel by Guy Endoren.

Directed and produced by Otto Preminger, the film stars Gene Tierney, Richard Conte, Jose Ferrer and Charles Bickford.

"Whirlpool" starts today at the Rialto Theatre.

Aussie Sees Japan Again Possible Enemy

CANBERRA, Australia, March 17.—(AP)—M. V. Ewart, former external affairs minister, told the Australian government today it is the only possible aggressor.

The former president of the United Nations Assembly, speaking from opposition benches in parliament, said:

"I don't believe Japan will be content to remain always ready to ally itself with those nations who were its chief enemies in the Second World War."

It was Ewart's first major foreign affairs speech in parliament since the defeat of the Labor government, in which he was deputy prime minister.

Russian Icon Reaches Canada

MONTREAL, March 17.—(AP)—The holy icon or our lady of Tichvin—believed the oldest icon in Russian orthodoxy—arrived here today from the Russian cathedral in New York.

In Canada for the first time, the icon is traditionally believed to have been made in Antioch by St. Luke the apostle.

It is known to have been in Jerusalem in the sixth century and in the 14th century in Constantinople.

They will fly from Calcutta, Queensland, to a base near the battlefield. From there they will have a three-day coastal trek to Edward River.

DRAMATIC ACTION in Soviet-controlled Vienna is portrayed in MGM's latest hit, "The Red Danube." Starring Janet Leigh, Peter Lawford and Ethel Barrymore, film tells of young ballet dancer attempting to flee from Russians. "The Red Danube" started yesterday at Empress Theatre.

Film on Post-War Vienna Called Exciting Adventure

Story of a British colonel and his staff who are sent to Vienna after the war, "The Red Danube," portrays exciting adventure in Soviet-controlled territory.

Starring Janet Leigh, Peter Lawford and Ethel Barrymore, the film shows the problems of the Britishers who attempt to ferret out subversive activities among displaced persons and turn in Soviet citizens for repatriation.

The plot centres on one of the victims of Soviet injustice, the lovely ballet dancer, Maria, who is reluctantly housed by the Russian officer, Pinkev. She takes refuge in the convent in which Col. Nicobar and his assistants are billeted.

Producer Leon Gordon selected a distinguished group of players for his leading characters, and the fluid direction of Carey Wilson, combines to make the picture one of the finest of its type ever offered the moviegoing public.

"The Red Danube" started yesterday at the Empress Theatre.

Canadian expenditures on mental hospitals totalled $20,978,415.

Movie Stars Shell Out As Uncle Sam Moves In

HOLLYWOOD, March 17.—(UP)—Top-bracket movie stars balanced up their cheque books today—or tried to after the income tax gouge—and began to wonder where their next swimming pool was coming from.

It's pretty safe to say there isn't half as much money cluttering up glittering now as there was a few days ago. March 15 leaves plenty of celebrities feeling poor.

And they put off the painful parting with those checks just as long as they dared. Some of 'em even admitted they skidded in under the midnight deadline by the skin of their gill-edge securities.

"I had the check made out for today," Larry Parks said. "But I didn't mail it until the last minute. As long as it stayed there on the desk I had money in the bank. After I sent it in—nothing!"

Keenan Wynn figured his tax came out in technicalities.

"I was red in the face figuring out the long green," he said. "And now I'm blue."

Ann Miller said she had the "corn beef" but the cabbage is gone.

And Jimmy Durante's wall was shorter than his famous trade mark.

"Brother! Do I pay through de nose?"

But one man with no complaints was Stephen McNally. He has a wife and five little $800 deductions.

"And that," he chuckled, "is one deduction even Sherlock Holmes couldn't make."

McNally added, however, they'd father pay high taxes here than any place else in the world. Even if it means doing over from 75 to 90 per cent of their pay checks.

Family Of Six Die In Blaze

PORT HURON, Mich., March 17.—(AP)—A fierce fire that destroyed their concrete-block home in a matter of minutes early yesterday claimed the lives of a family of six here.

The fire that swept the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Chase is believed to have started in the living room of the home where Mr. and Mrs. Chase had been playing cards with Chase's brother Frank and his wife until 4 a.m.

Under Sheriff A. J. Foster identified the dead as Chase, 42, his wife, Phyllis, 32, an expectant mother, and their four children—Jedidiah, 6, Nancy, 4, Ralph, 3, and Rebecca, 2.

The fire was noticed at 8 a.m. by a passer-by who said he saw a "sheet of flame" roar out from the home on Willow lane in Port Huron township. He tried to get in, but was driven back by the intense heat.

Foster said the body of the father was found in the kitchen and the other members of the family in their bedrooms.

Provincial Gov'ts In Heated Session

Quebec Budget Presented, $7 Millions Surplus Seen

By the Canadian Press
A budget of more than $200,000,000 was presented to the Quebec legislature yesterday. Provincial Treasurer Gagnon called it "a token of faith in the province's economic structure."

He estimated a surplus of $7,520,000 for the fiscal year now ending, and budgeted for revenue of $201,349,970 and expenditures of $193,829,970 on ordinary account for the coming year, with a surplus after debt charges and capital expenditures of $7,520,000. There were no taxation changes.

In the Ontario legislature, a three-hour debate ended yesterday with a majority of 40 to 34 for the Progressive Conservative government on three divisions.

Premier Frost hinted that a redistribution might be carried out before the next Ontario election.

SEEK PRICE SUPPORT
Fisheries Minister Kough told the Newfoundland legislature that unless the province managed to sell 250,000 quintals of fish in Europe this year the may have to turn to Caribbean and other Western Hemisphere markets, traditionally a field for the other maritime provinces.

The New Brunswick house adopted a resolution, a motion for continued negotiation with the federal authorities on a support price for the 1949 potato crop.

Dr. W. P. MacMillan, Progressive Conservative opposition leader, said the Prime Minister's insistence that no national unity exists now and never will exist until the provinces are treated on a fair and equitable financial basis.

ON WAIVES
A committee of the Manitoba legislature gave second reading to a bill amending the defamatory act. It would enable courts to consider the caption on a story in conjunction with the story itself in considering whether it is defamatory.

The Saskatchewan legislature continuing budget debate, heard a charge by J. E. McCormack (L.-Souris-Saskatoon) that employees of Saskatchewan government corporations are worse paid than workers in private industry.

LOST WEIGHT

Indian Weak From Protest Hunger Strike

QUEBEC, March 17.—(CP)—Jules Sioui, usually valuable little Huron Indian, today was reported unable to answer the telephone after a 22-day hunger strike.

In a telephone interview, Mrs. Sioui, wife of the 42-year-old barber-grocer who espouses the cause of Indians, said Sioui could not get up from his bed to come to the telephone.

Weakened by his fast in protest against charges of conspiracy to defraud and disturbing the peace, Sioui now seldom goes up, his wife said.

"He seems to have lost a lot of weight," Mrs. Sioui said.

"He figures he has lost 30 pounds since his fast started Feb. 22. He has not weighed himself since before his hunger strike started when he weighed about 170 pounds."

All that Sioui is taking daily is about one pint of boiled water containing some dissolved sugar.

The two charges against Sioui resulted from his activities as secretary of an organization called the "Government of the North American Indian Nation."

"Brother! Do I pay through de nose?"

But one man with no complaints was Stephen McNally. He has a wife and five little $800 deductions.

"And that," he chuckled, "is one deduction even Sherlock Holmes couldn't make."

McNally added, however, they'd father pay high taxes here than any place else in the world. Even if it means doing over from 75 to 90 per cent of their pay checks.
